Macpherson+Kelley boosts Property Practice

Commercial law firm, Macpherson+Kelley Lawyers (M+K) has appointed Craig Hailes as Principal in its Melbourne property team.

Having previously been with the firm as a young Lawyer and following an 8 year absence, Craig returns to M+K and joins an experienced team of property Lawyers.

Craig advises vendors, purchasers and developers in relation to industrial developments, retail developments, shopping centres, multi-level buildings, environmentally sensitive resort developments, retirement villages, stand-alone buildings and has considerable experience in broad acre land acquisitions and sales. Craig also acts for Landlords and tenants in all types of commercial, industrial and retail leasing involving negotiation and drafting of lease documents, agreements for lease, sale and leaseback, mining leases and resolution of disputes by way of mediation and at VCAT.

His appointment takes the firm's property team to 9 Lawyers across Melbourne and Sydney.

M+K Lawyers is a commercial law firm focussed on advising growing corporations around Australia. In business for 104 years and with more than 70 Lawyers, M+K has offices in Melbourne, Dandenong (Vic), Sydney and North Sydney. M+K's international experience is strengthened through its strategic affiliation with Multilaw, a global association of over 70 law firms worldwide providing clients with access to Lawyers in the UK, Europe, Asia, USA and the sub-continent.
